Service Overview:

As your Life Coach and Energy Healer, I help you level up in your life. I help you heal and grow as a person – you are only in competition with the old you. If reaching your goals require healing through emotional turmoil and personal struggles, you have an opportunity to do so.

The 1st goal is to teach you how to tap into your PERSONAL POWER. This is done through a variety of proven COACHING techniques in my 5-step client breakthrough system focused on a lot of inner work. My system will allow you to clarify your vision and direction around whatever your goals are, strategize your actions, upgrade your skills (if relevant to the goal), optimize your environment as well as master your psychology. This work also includes steps for deep forgiveness for others and yourself while increasing your self-love, self-care and self-celebration. You will be challenged as well as supported in this process, though you are still responsible for your choices and you are in charge of what actions you take.

The 2nd goal is to heal your emotional trauma and that is where EMOTION CODE (energy healing modality) is applied. By working with your subconscious using muscle testing, I will release all trapped emotions hindering your progress. This technique is NON-INVASIVE and can be done in person or at a distance via remote healing via Skype, Phone or Email so you can be anywhere in the world.

Lastly, I utilize scientifically proven 15-minute subconscious reprogramming meditations that are designed to help you to manifest more money, better relationships and improved health and wellness. These meditations are awesome because you literally only need to dedicate 15 minutes a day and you can even listen to them when you are going to sleep.

Overall, I become your partner on your healing journey and give you the tools you need to live the life you desire. You DESERVE what you DESIRE!

All coaching + energy healing services can also be done remotely via Phone/Skype/Email so you can be anywhere in the world and still work with me. We customize the best option for your situation.

Confidentiality:

I recognize that information shared in your coaching/healing work with me is confidential and at no time will any of the information be disclosed to anyone else without your specific approval (excluding disclosure of illegal or unethical activities). All coaching and healing clients are required to sign a contract adhering to the rules of privacy when participating in any of my services.
